

tree food

Trees make food in their leaves.

They use water, sunlight, carbon dioxide and nutrients from the soil to make food. They use this food to make them grow bigger and produce more branches, leaves and seeds.

When trees make food they also produce oxygen.

Oxygen is important for animals and humans to breathe.

Can you fill in the words on the diagram below?

